

Curriculum Vitae – Einar Örn Hedinsson

Personal information

Date and place of birth 10 May 1969, Akureyri Iceland.
Nationality Icelandic

Education

1994 -1997 Technical University of Denmark. Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering
1990 -1994 University of Iceland. C.Sc. in Mechanical Engineering

Professional experience

(Aviation related)

2017 - ICETRA – Director Transport Operations (Maritime, Aviation and Road Traffic)

2014 – 2017 Member of Air Navigation Commission, ICAO

2007 - 2014 Icelandic Civil Aviation Administration (ICAA):

- Director of Flight Safety Division
- Deputy Director General

2008 - 2009 ICAA - Head of Flight Operations Section

2003 – 2009 ICAA - Head of Training- and Licensing Section

1997 – 2003 ICAA - Special projects, including:

- Quality Management specialist
- Development of databases
- Coordinator for implementation of occurrence reporting systems

International experience

Extensive experience of international cooperation since 1998, e.g. member of EASA Management Board.

Wide-range of courses and symposiums on management systems, flight safety, implementing rules and technological developments over a period of 20 years.

Personal skills and competences

Proven organizational skills and ability to facilitate discussion in a successful manner. Solid management experience and good IT knowledge.

Full proficiency in English and good knowledge of the Scandinavian languages. Native language: Icelandic

Interests

Geography, swimming, literature, chess and motor sport.
