Subject of the contract Provision of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Publications (books, reports, manuals, standards, among others) and; - Subscriptions (newsletters, journals, among others). These will be in either printed or electronic format (EMSA reserves the right to choose which format, based on its needs). The publishers can be international organisations, official national organisations, publishing houses, consultants, among others. As an example, a brief non-exhaustive list of some of these is provided below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Informa - International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC) - International Maritime Organization (IMO) - International Organization for Standardization (ISO) - NHST Media Group - O'Reilly Media - Springer-Verlag GmbH - The Nautical Institute - Lloyd's list The majority of the publications and subscriptions that EMSA acquires or subscribes are written in English and, to a lesser extent, in other EU languages such as Portuguese, Spanish, French, and German. Therefore, the majority of the materials are acquired or subscribed from publishers based outside Portugal, mainly publishers from the rest of Europe and the USA. 2. Contract Implementation The aim of this procedure is to conclude a Framework Contract with a single contractor, which will be implemented via Order Forms. The contractor must act as an intermediary between EMSA and the publishers. Therefore they must contact the latter regarding, inter alia:
-----------------------------------	--

- the purchase of requested publications/subscriptions,
- guaranteeing the punctual delivery of publications/subscriptions,
- the filing of complaints when necessary.

2.1 Purchasing arrangements

EMSA, depending on its needs, will send a list of publication/subscription titles to the contractor, asking for a quote in Euros. This quote shall include the cost of supplier prices of publications or subscriptions, currency conversion calculations, broker-ship fee, where applicable anticipated additional costs (e.g. customs fees, delivery charges).

Charges related to the delivery of the publications from the supplier to the contractor's place of business may be invoiced to EMSA. In particular, for any items being delivered from outside the EU, EMSA may foresee in the respective Order Form a fixed amount to cover such costs. EMSA reserves the right to request that the contractor provides evidence of such costs (e.g. customs fees, delivery charges) and only actual costs incurred will be paid for. The broker-ship fee shall not be applied to these additional costs but only to the costs of the publications or subscriptions.

Delivery charges to EMSA (i.e. charges for the delivery of publications from the contractor's place of business to EMSA) are assumed by the contractor. The contractor must also take into account that other charges may be incurred by them (e.g. administrative, bank, telephone, among others) and must be accounted for in the submitted broker-ship fee.

Costs invoiced cannot exceed those quoted and accepted by EMSA in the Order Form.

2.2 Delivery time frame

The contractor must carry out delivery of publications/subscriptions within a maximum period after the date the Order Form is signed of:

- Printed materials – 20 working days for (25 days for non-EU publishers);
- Electronic materials (e-books, electronic subscriptions and journals) – 5 working days.

2.3. Dispatching materials

Dispatching printed material to EMSA shall be carried out via a secure delivery system (e.g. hand-delivery, registered post or courier service), which shall be detailed by the tenderer in their tender. Items should be suitably packaged, so as to avoid possible damage to the printed material, by using appropriate packaging materials to each case.

Electronic publications should be sent to the following email address:

	library@emsa.europa.eu. Electronic access will also be possible through EMSA's list of IP addresses. 2.4. Communication The contractor must establish communication lines that will allow EMSA to be kept informed on the state of, in particular but not limited to, its orders, purchases and invoices. If the contractor is unable to carry out delivery within the set time frame, the contractor must inform EMSA, before the expiry of the delivery deadline, of the publications affected and the reason why the delivery cannot be completed in time.
