1	Dear EMSA, I am writing to express our interest in submitting an offer for the study. However, we are currently facing challenges in meeting the deadline due to the holiday season and an increased workload. In light of this, we kindly request information on whether the time limit for receiving tenders may be extended. Your consideration of this matter is greatly appreciated.	20/12/2023 14:40 GMT	Thank you for your e-mail. Unfortunately, due to scheduling constraints, we are unable to extend the submission deadline on this occasion.
2	Dear Sirs, We are interested in making a proposal for subject tender but struggle with the allocation of resources due to the holidays.	21/12/2023 09:34 GMT	Thank you for your e-mail. Unfortunately, due to scheduling constraints, we are unable to extend the submission deadline on this occasion.

	Would it be possible to extend the deadline for submission with one or, preferably, two weeks?
3	2 questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Has the deadline been extended? - Can you provide me with the technical PoC from your side for us to discuss the possibilities? 	08/01/2024 17:06 GMT	Thank you for your e-mail. Unfortunately, due to scheduling constraints, we have not extended the submission deadline on this occasion. As regards the technical details, these are contained in the document "tender specifications", which was sent to your organisation enclosed to the invitation to tender email. This document is also available on the Procurement Section on EMSA website at http://emsa.europa.eu/procurement.html
