

Captain Juha-Matti Korsi,
Head of Department Vessels,
Finnish Transport and Communications Agency

Capt. Korsi started his sailing career in 1986 as an ordinary seaman onboard small Finnish coaster vessel. After having graduated from Rauma Nautical Academy in 1992 as a master mariner, Capt. Korsi continued to sail few more years' mainly on tankers, ro-ro vessels and icebreakers and joined the Finnish Maritime Administration in 1996.

Since 1996, Capt. Korsi has worked in several expert and management positions in Finnish Maritime Authorities.

Currently Capt. Korsi is working as the Head of Department in the Finnish Transport and Communications Agency. Department's responsibilities include Flag State duties, Port State Control, Host State Control, Vessel Certification and Manning, Certificates of Competencies, Sea Charts, Hydrographic Surveys, Recreational Boating, Vessel and Boat registries, Pilotage and VTS authority duties.